

Interested in joining the generationnext Youth Committee?

What is a generationnext Youth Committee Member expected to do?

- Attend meetings at the MCA once a month after school (usually 5–6pm on a Monday or Wednesday) to design, plan and organise aspects of generationnext events
- Have an interest in contemporary arts and be organised, enthusiastic, communicative and reliable!
- Contribute ideas for generationnext including:
  - Competitions and costume ideas
  - What food and drink to serve
  - Choosing bands, solo performers and DJ's
  - How to include artists and performers
  - Choosing promotional materials and giveaways
  - Devising ways to promote, expand and improve the generationnext program
- Help to set up and run generationnext events on the day
- Spread the word about the program in your school - tell your teachers and tell your friends!

What will you get in return? – LOADS of stuff!

- The chance to plan and put on fantastic events for your peers and friends at the Museum of Contemporary Art
- The opportunity to learn about behind the scenes life at Australia's leading contemporary art museum
- The opportunity to meet exhibiting artists and MCA curators
- The chance to write reviews of exhibitions and contribute your creative thoughts for the generationnext website, myspace site and facebook
- Free MCA organised visits to artist studios in Sydney
- Access to exclusive after hours guided tours by the Exhibition Curator for selected MCA exhibitions
- 10% discount at the MCA shop
- Free art books, exhibition catalogues or posters for selected exhibitions at the MCA
- Behind the scenes installation opportunities at the MCA
- Free 'Artist Voice' CD's from the MCA
- Free entry to any paid exhibitions at the MCA
- generationnext end of year party at a Sydney contemporary art gallery with the generationnext Connectors

- Give 3 reasons why you would like to be a generationnext Committee Member and a few lines on why you would do a great job!

Being a generationnext Committee Member could lead to a future career in the Arts.

Two of our generationnext Committee Members are now working as Visitor Services Officers at the MCA. HOW?

This is because of the excellent job they did as generationnext Youth Committee Members and the understanding and skills they developed at the museum during this time, which were seen as assets to their application.

There are only 12 Committee Member positions available, so get your application in fast!
