

generationnext

at the MCA, supported by the Balnaves Foundation

Are you interested in becoming a generationnext Connector?

What is a generationnext Connector expected to do?

- Spread the word about the program in your school – tell your art teachers BUT most importantly tell your friends – get them to come to the great FREE generationnext events that the MCA puts on for teenagers
- Distribute event flyers and put up posters in your school 5 times a year
- Contribute your ideas and great ways to promote, expand and improve the generationnext program by communicating regularly via email and attending a gathering at the MCA once every 6 months, for generationnext Committee Members and Connectors

Also

- Be organised, reliable and enthusiastic
- Have weekly access to your own email account
- Have an interest in contemporary art and culture
- Be excited about meeting new people and having a great time!

What will you get in return? LOADS of stuff!!

- 10% discount at the MCA shop
- Free exhibition catalogues and posters for selected MCA exhibitions
- Access to exclusive after hours guided tours by the Exhibition Curator for all new MCA shows
- The chance to write reviews of exhibitions and contribute your creative thoughts to the generationnext Myspace site
- Free 'Artist Voice' CD's from the MCA
- Free entry to any paid exhibitions at the MCA
- 'generationnext Connectors' end of year party at a Sydney contemporary art gallery that supports emerging young artists
