KIDS & FAMILIES 2018 PROGRAMS

Museum of Contemporary Art Australia

Spark your imagination and creativity with a family visit to the MCA. We offer an exciting range of opportunities which inspire adults and children to discover contemporary art together.

● Art Baby

Parents and carers with babies up to 12 months old 💰

Bookings essential

Join like-minded families on an exhibition tour led by an Artist Educator, followed by an interactive play session on our artist-designed multisensory blanket. Prams, front packs and slings welcome.

● Contemporary Kids

Ages 4+ 💰

Purchase your family ticket online or on the door

Unleash your creativity during this collaborative art-making workshop held every school holiday.

● ARTplay

Ages 5 and under

Drop-in, we welcome a $5 donation per family

Explore an interactive artwork together with your child. Read a story, sing songs and let creative play lead the way!

● Pipilotti Rist Family Space

All ages

Drop-in, free

Drop-in for hands on art making activities inspired by the artist's practice. Visit our website for opening times.

● Art Safari

Ages 3-5 💰

Bookings essential

Explore a different theme and exhibition every month through collaborative play, storytelling, movement and art-making, led by our Artist Educators.

Free Resources

Ages 5+

Stop by our Inside/Out resource room on Level 2 and collect an artist illustrated SKETCH booklet or choose from a range of fun activity sheets. Keep an eye out for our special family wall labels, created for and by kids!

We're Family Friendly!

We've got everything covered – from baby changing facilities, cloakroom, pram parking, hosts to assist you in the galleries and child-friendly meals in the MCA Cafe.

Access for all

Support for family members with disability or access requirements is available during all of our programs. Contact us to find out more or to arrange a free family program tailored to your specific interests and access needs. 9245 2400
